

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1889.

NO. 48

A WADDLE-00.

Our Namesakes Downed for the First Time.

The first defeat the Interior Journals have had this season was suffered Tuesday evening at the hands of the Waddle Bros., of Somerset, who beat them by a score of 20 to 16. The game started out a most interesting one and up to the third inning good playing was done on both sides, but just then Wilson, the crack amateur catcher in the State, was hit by the ball, rendering him unable to finish the game, thus leaving the score 7 to 3 in favor of the I. Js. Severance took his place and did admirably, but the whole nine seemed to become rattled at losing Wilson and then the tables were turned, and the Waddle Bros. ran the score up to 17 to 11. Rice, whom the boys have never learned to bat, had not the confidence in Severance that he has in Wilson, who has taught him all the season, and was afraid to throw his balls as hard as was necessary to put his deceiving curves on, thus giving the visiting team another good chance to get in their work. A change of battery was made at the 7th inning, Severance pitching and Penny catching, and here our boys made 6 scores to their three, putting the score 20 to 16, and thus the game ended. There were a number of accidents and mishaps and the game was continued till nearly dark.

The second game Wednesday morning gave our boys another defeat and now they may be said to be well acquainted with such. They had hoped to secure one victory at least, but alas! disappointment was in store for them and they received it. About the same nine played both games and their positions were similar to the evening before. The game was a loose one from beginning to end, as will be seen by the score, which stood 15 to 11 in favor of the Waddle Bros. in the 5th inning game—the time being insufficient to finish it. There were no features of the game worth mentioning and the tale is told when it is said the Interior Journals lost the game by bad playing and ill-luck. The clubs now stand two to two and the superiority will be proven by a game which will be played very probably at Danville, in the next few weeks. The gentlemen of the team, and others who accompanied them, proved as clever a set as is usually seen with a base ball club, and it was a pleasure to have them with us. The Interior Journals are not down in the mouth over the Waterloo, but are ready to play 'em again whenever they want a game. We are confident our boys can wipe up the earth with them, with Wilson on his feet, and will make good our assertion when bats are crossed again.

AROUND THE DIAMOND.

It was a fair and square heat, but they can't do it again.

John Squire and John Bash brought their handsome wives with them.

The crowds were good both days and the manager is considerably ahead, financially speaking.

The ladies, too, bless them, were for the I. Js., but fate was against us. It is hard to decide which is preferable.

The first basemen of both teams deserve credit. It is up and back between Morrow, of the Waddle Bros., and Ferrill, of the I. Js.

The visiting boys went home as happy as lords and well pleased with both their success in winning and their treatment while here.

Col. Bradley says the Interior Journals play the best ball, even if they did get beat in both games, and the colonel is a man of great magnificence.

Bonne and Pettus, the Waddle Bros. battery, collided while running for a fly and the tangling of legs that followed resulted in a flat fall for each.

John Bash inspired and again proved his ability. He is careful in making his decision and when made he sticks to it though heaven and earth be moved to make him recall it.

The Somerset boys and those accompanying them yelled unashamedly for their team and were the happiest crowd one could wish to see when they were certain of their victory.

Col. Bradley was so enthusiastic that he could hardly contain himself. It was whispered that he declined his appointment to Coren because there were no base ball players there.

Judge T. Z. Morrow and his seven boys a "pair of twins" among them, were present at both games. The staid judge set aside his dignity for the time being and was as loud an applauder as there was in the Pulaski crowd.

If Judge Morrow continues to increase and replenish the earth with boys as he has been doing, he will soon be able to start a base ball club of his own. He has seven already and the last two are twins. Hurrah for the Morrow club!

Capt. Mike Card says it was actually the impression at Somerset that they would be mobbed up here and that he and his club were very agreeably surprised at the treatment they received from our boys. The Interior Journals club is composed entirely of gentlemen, who are above treating anybody, especially its guests, unbecomingly, and we are pleased to know that the utmost good feeling prevailed throughout. The visitors went home delighted and left all of us favorably impressed with them.

CRAB ORCHARD

—Plenty of rain and warm weather makes rank vegetation, result—considerable sickness, some flux, some fever.

—Rev. R. M. Gano will preach at the Christian church at this place next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at night.

—Miss Maud Pope, of Junction City, and Mr. George Evans, Jr., of Kansas City, Mo., are the guests of Mrs. J. H. Hutchings.

—Everybody has plenty of Irish potatoes. There is a very heavy crop. Oats crop good, but hard to save on account of so much rain.

—Mr. Tinsley, a well-to-do farmer from New Mexico, who has been here for some time looking up a farm, has purchased one near Lancaster and has gone there to prepare to bring his family. Others say "Go West," but his motto is "Go to Old Kentucky."

—It is rumored that Rose Ward says he is "no candidate." Trying the still hunt, we suppose. What McClary is off for the unexpired term of school superintendent as we don't want to have to decide between him and Miss Bogle. Would like to give it to either, although now will gladly vote for Miss Bogle.

—Finding himself alone in the barnyard, all the hens having gone to setting, a turkey gobbler belonging to Mrs. Pettus, at Preachersville, drove a chicken hen from her nest and took possession, each day resuming his place after getting food. He did this for three weeks and was rewarded with a full brood of chickens. But his clumsy claws got away with four by mashing them to death and an old sow finished the balance, save one, which the old fellow takes around, clucking in a most motherly way.

—The two strange men who were at the Vanderpool House the night of the robbery of the painters, turn out to be Craft and Mullins, of Laurel county, who were passing under false names. By the way, they were not of the family of Hon. J. A. Craft, of London. It seems that they were either hiding for deviltry already committed or seeking to commit some here. They hid themselves from persons knowing them here and would not show themselves when they were about. They returned to the mountains Sunday.

—Dripping Springs has about 40 or 50 guests now. Crab Orchard Springs about 75. Two, Lee Jones returned home Tuesday from Woodland, Mo. Misses Lizzie Buchanan and Mary Newland are visiting friends near Richmond. Mr. E. H. Meitz, of Glasgow Junction, and A. H. Bracken, of Louisville, Traveling Auditors of the L. & N. railroad and Adams Express Co., did up the depot Tuesday evening and spent the night at Crab Orchard Springs. Miss Ora Williams returned home Monday. We learn that Tom and Will Higgins have started a grocery at Somerset where they moved recently.

—Mr. W. T. Grant, president of the Springs Co., came out from Louisville Sunday and returned Monday. He will send a band to the Springs and the first ball of the season will be given tonight.

—Friday, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burke have just arrived here to spend a few days of their honeymoon with old friends. Prof. Ruple, of Centre College, Danville, was up Sunday and some lady was made glad by his coming. Madam Limor says a good many things, but we saw wood and say nothing. If the professor will tell us when the day is named we won't tell anyone else.

The Crab Orchard boys had better be up and doing and not let Boyle county hear of all the prizes.

—John Carter, a negro, who killed Officer Reynolds, at Hinton, W. Va., while the latter was reading a warrant to him, was afterwards taken from jail and lynched by friends of the murdered officer.

—During the outward trip of the steamship Harkness to a Brazilian port, her cargo, consisting of 200 barrels of oil and a quantity of tow, caught fire and her crew tried to desert. The captain, however, compelled them to remain on the vessel and successfully made the run of 2,300 miles with the fire smoldering in her hold. The Emperor of Brazil presented the captain with a number of tokens of esteem because of his bravery.

—A Knoxville paper says: "The Tennessee and Ohio Railroad, better known as the Rogersville road, will be extended to Big Stone Gap, Va., at once. It was purchased by Col. Samuel Thomas, president of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia, which indicates that it will become a part of the great East Tennessee system and is but another step toward making the East Tennessee to the South what the Pennsylvania is to the North—the carrier of coals for the nation."

—Miss Mary Golders, daughter of Green Golders, a merchant residing on the Cumberland river, in Pulaski, shot herself in the left breast Tuesday. She had been engaged to a young man named William Simpson, who, three false representations ruined her. Fearing disgrace she deliberately took a pistol from her father's bureau drawer and walking into her room and lying down on a couch she fired, and died shortly afterwards.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—A T. Nunnally sold in Cincinnati a car-load of ewes at $3.35.

—Joe Coffey bought in the East End 6 head aged mules at $120 to $145.

—Abe Wilson, of Boyle, bought of R. T. Sandidge a combined mare for $235.

—L. D. Garner sold to W. D. Irvine, of Madison, a combined gelding for $200.

—Johnson, of Boyle, bought of F. D. Myers 9 head of 2-year-old heifers at $13.

—John Murphy, the famous driver and trainer of trotting horses, is dead in New York.

—John Wood, of Boyle, bought of West End parties several head of yearling heifers at $12 to $13.25.

—J. F. Pettus, of Preachersville, has a turkey gobbler that has set on and hatched out 20 young turkeys.

—J. H. Jones, of Tennessee, has bought in this and Boyle counties 12 head of aged mules at $120 to $142.50.

—Jesse Fox, of Boyle, passed through Wednesday with some 200 ewes he had bought in Wayne county at about 3 cts.

—Moses Kahn bought 20 best cattle in the State, weight 1,000, from Mr. Prickett, of Fayette, at 4 cents.—Paris News.

—The Lexington Gazette says John Hostetter has threshed and delivered his crop of wheat and it yielded 53 lbs. to the acre.

—The trot between Pence, Blumont and H. J. Barst's mare, Stella, Tuesday evening, was easily won by Pence who jogged it in 2:32.

—Austin, Texas, has received the first bale of cotton raised in that State this year. It is said that the crop will reach 2,000,000 bales and that the corn crop is simply enormous.

—Matt Sandidge and Logan Denny left yesterday for the Kirksville Fair, with a nice string of horses. They will keep up their reputation by bringing back a number of blue ties.

—At Winchester Court there were but few cattle on the market and no public sales. 40 head of 1,000-lb. steers were sold privately at 3¢. A small crowd in town and a dull court.

—Speaking of Spokane, his owner says: "The colt is as sound as a dollar. I have no desire to sell, but if anybody asks, you can safely say I wouldn't take less than $500,000 for Spokane."

—Better qualities of butcher and good shipping cattle are in demand in Cincinnati, other grades dragging, with highest and lowest prices 1½ to 4; hogs are more active and higher, running from 3½ to 4.55; sheep are firm at 3 to 4 and lambs 3½ to 6.

—N. B. Teyis, of St. Joseph, Mo., sends us the premium list of the New Era Exposition, which opens there Sept. 3 and continues until Oct. 5th. All of them are large, that for corn being especially so, $500 for first best dozen ears; $250 for 2d; $125 for 3d; $62.50 for 4th; $31.25 for 5th; $15 for 6th and $5 for 7th. Premiums on cattle, sheep, hogs and horses run from $10 to $150.

—Prof. Thos. H. Payne sold to Jesse Martin 25 yearling mules at $110 per head. Mr. H. F. Rodgers had a field of barley to make a fraction over 42 bushels to the acre. A better crop of Irish potatoes than the present was never raised in this section. A. W. Bowling & Son have bought and shipped 4,500 lands this season in Scott and adjoining counties at a cost of $20,000 and say they made only about $100 in the whole transaction.—Georgetown Times.

—Miss Kate Bogle, in a cleverly written and in the Interior Journals, announces her candidacy for superintendent of common schools in Lincoln county to succeed her father, recently deceased. The card and the femininity such as, Bro. Walton is appointed our proxy to see that she is elected.—Frankfort Capital. All right, Colonel Johnson, we'll see to it. Miss Kate is already as good as elected, as she eminently deserves to be, being naturally capable and qualified by experience in the duties of the office, to hold it.

Cleveland's cabinet abolished the custom established under Grant of appropriating department funds to pay for and maintain horses and carriages for members. Harrison's cabinet is restoring it. Secretary Noble has bought a $1,000 span of blooded Kentucky horses out of the contingent fund of the Interior Department and will soon buy a costly carriage at government expense for his personal use. All the republican magnates are exerting themselves to reduce the surplus.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—The Pineville Coal & Iron Company is putting in 100 more coke ovens.

—Tony Cohen, a young clerk employed in a clothing store at New York, was sent to a bank to deposit $11,000. He pocketed the cash and eloped with a girl who worked in a restaurant.

—A summary of the train accidents during June shows that there were 23 collisions, 42 derailments and four other accidents—a total of 70—in which 35 persons were killed and 102 injured.

—In a general fight which occurred among colored men over a game of craps at Benot Station, Miss., one man was killed and another was mortally wounded and several were seriously injured.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—A new Masonic Lodge has been established at Woodstock.

—John Gadd is stricken with paralysis and is not expected to live.

—Joel Anglin was tried on a whisky case Monday and fined $25 and jailed.

—R. E. Thompson shipped a car of fat cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Saturday.

—A splendid brick hotel and 19 acres in lots for sale. Maret & Cross, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

—John Mink and family, after five years' stay in Kansas, have returned to the land of their birth.

—Al Owens was arrested and is out on bond, charged by a woman at Sinks with being the father of her child.

—Ben Catron lost his house by fire Monday. This is the second time he has been burned out in the last few years.

—Bill Newcomb, who has been a terror in the Broadhead neighborhood, got into trouble with a woman Monday and fled to Texas.

—Hon. James B. McCreary will speak here Wednesday, July 31st. A big crowd is expected to come out and hear the Model Governor and the "people's Congressman."

—A number of meetings have been held by our citizens during the week for the purpose of organizing and formulating plans for the suppression of the illicit liquor traffic in this place. The organization will be completed Friday night.

—Miss Ella Joplin left Monday night for a visit to Missouri. M. F. Brinkley was here this week. W. T. Davis, democratic candidate for State Senate from this district, and Dr. Roberts, republican candidate, were here Monday mixing with our people. There was no speaking, except by G. M. Davison. No one replied to him. J. J. Brooks, of Richmond, was here Monday, introducing our candidate.

—When Auctioneer Elkin was here Monday he visited Wm. Poynter and proposed to purchase the hotel bell that is now owned by the latter gentleman. The bell was brought to Mt. Vernon more than 60 years since and placed on the Elkin Hotel by the auctioneer's father and used for many years. The house in which the hotel was kept is yet standing and is occupied by a dry goods firm. The bell was the first ever brought to Mt. Vernon and has done service for three hotels.

—Hume.—Captain Powell arrived here Wednesday with a good supply of Montgomery literature, which is being read with care. All parties are becoming more enthusiastic and the vote stands here as it did some days ago, provided a republican candidate comes out as is expected. Parties from Nashville are trying to sell lightning rods here and from their sales we can safely say that we are not badly lightning rod struck; not so bad as to prove fatal. C. R. Harris has a painful case of poison oak, his hands and arms being badly swollen. Joseph Swope's mule which he bought at Lancaster for $100 is badly snaggled. Mary Hubble is visiting her cousin Allie this week. J. B. Robinson is gone to Niagara Falls. Miss Bell has returned to Hopkinsville after a visit at Robinson's for a few days. Miss Ora Scott is visiting Miss Hattie Robinson. Colored school began here Monday with good attendance. Joseph Engleman is ready to begin work on his dwelling. Thomas Floyd took a mule back which Robert Arvin has been running here for some time. Dr. G. A. Traylor is back from Louisville and reports the tobacco trade dull and heavy. Lemont Higgins, of Pulaski county, is visiting at Frank Higley's. Wm. Snow has a fine boy at his house and Henry Spoonamore has a fine daughter. E. A. White's team became frightened the other day while hauling lime and when it made its appearance in town the fog from the lime caused the citizens to believe that it was a traction engine deserted by its manager. Mrs. H. E. Engleman did not go to Niagara Falls as reported. James Cox, while tiling a saw, dropped the file and the sharp end penetrated his great toe fastening it securely to the floor.

—It is ascertained that at least 22 persons were drowned in the flood in the Little Kanawha, W. Va.

—Jim Blaine, Jr. was fireman on the train that took his distinguished father homeward.

—Judge Rufus K. Williams, ex-Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, died at Ogden, Utah, after a lingering illness.

—Division Superintendent Tyler, of the Queen and Crescent road, who arranged the trains for the Sullivan-Kilrain fight, was arrested at New Orleans and taken to Jackson, Miss., on a requisition, charged with aiding and abetting prize fighting.

—Why is it that people linger along always complaining about that continual tired feeling? One bottle of Beegs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will surely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. A. R. Peary, Druggist.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

State Treasurer,
STEPHEN G. SUARVE.FOR STATE SENATOR,
R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, OF BOYLE.For Representative, Lincoln County,
RICHARD C. WARREN.

There is no earthly excuse for any democrat refusing to support R. C. Warren in this contest. His record as a democrat is as good as any man's, no matter where he comes from. He has never scratched a ticket, refused to support a nominee or shirked any call made upon him by his party, but has always cheerfully given his time and his means to further the cause of democracy and good government. He is in addition a man of the highest standing at home and abroad, is worthy and well qualified for the position he seeks;—in fine he is a thorough christian gentleman, a temperance man in both theory and practice and one who will always reflect credit upon himself and upon his party. The charge that he advocates the opening of saloons is in keeping with the other miserable lies that some of the prohibitionists at least are industriously circulating. It may be his opinion that a well regulated license law is more conducive to good order and good government than prohibition, but that is merely his private opinion, which he has at no time argued or attempted to argue, and for which he is responsible to no one except his God. He will not attempt to override the wishes of his constituents in the matter, but will simply have passed an amendment to the prohibitory law, giving to the people the right to retain or reject it, as they may see proper. Mr. Warren is the candidate of no faction or clique. He was nominated by delegates two-thirds of whom voted for the prohibition law, many of whom will do it again, but they are democrats and do not subordinate their party's interest to please the fanatical few, who think that a strictly moral question must always be forced to the front in a purely political election. Fellow democrats, we appeal to you to do your duty by voting for your nominee and electing him to an office, which by nature and training he is so fitted to fill. We believe you will do so and that political parsons and political renegades will be relegated to the obscurity they so eminently deserve.

The democrats of Somerset permitted Mr. Inman, republican, to hold the post-office till his term was out, which was not until last year. Mr. Richardson, a democrat, was then appointed, and he has been removed after less than a year's service. But Judge Finley wanted to do something at the government's expense for the woman, whose husband he permitted to drown before his eyes, so he has had Mrs. Tarter appointed to the office. Well, he does owe her something handsome, but he might have paid it without having a good man removed, after that man had quietly waited for his republican predecessor's term to expire.

Fixing that they cannot seduce democrats to leave their party and vote for Montgomery, the policy of the prohibitionists is to induce as many of them to stay away from the polls as possible by the most arrant of false representations. Democrats, we urge you, let nothing keep you from voting. You vote may not be needed, but on the other hand it might and it is your duty to go to the polls and cast it for Dick Warren. We shall not be satisfied with simply beating them, we must paralyze them with such a majority as will send canting preachers and political fanatics forever to the rear.

SINCE 1867 the county of Bell has drawn from the State treasury $113,230.96, more money than it paid in. The republican candidate for treasurer, who lives there, might give this statement along with his charge that the State funds have been misappropriated. The extent of the misappropriation, if any is, in permitting the republican mountain counties to filch from the treasury vast sums of money, ostensibly for criminal prosecution, where most of it goes, to pay witness fees in trumped-up cases that never come to anything.

CINCINNATI for a time is indulging in a spasm of virtue and closing her saloons and other establishments that keep open house on Sunday. An ice-cream parlor was forced to shut up shop and the proprietor appealed to the court, which promptly decided that ice-cream is a necessity, instead of a luxury, and therefore its sale is not prohibited on Sunday. The girls say the judge is too sweet for anything and are going to smother him with flowers and kisses, if they get a chance.

The Cincinnati Commercial is moved to remark: For a democratic State, Kentucky is pretty well represented in the Senate. Dock may get a little pig-headed and Blackburn lose his temper suddenly, but, upon the whole, they are par excellence freedom and a credit to their State.

As the republican speakers are devoting most of their oratory to the Tate defalcation, the Democratic State Central Committee has decided that the best method of fighting the devil is with fire and have accordingly thrown a brand into the republican camp by issuing a circular which recalls a few of the stealings of the g. o. p. The total defalcations of republican officials as reported by Secretary Fairchild, in response to a resolution from Congress, from 1866 to 1884, were $11,408,693.77, the assistant treasurer at New Orleans getting away with $564,212.67; Treasurer F. E. Spinner with $389,267.46; A. J. Anxier, marshal of Kentucky, with $40,545.06; R. M. Kelly, pension agent of Kentucky, with $62,000 and so on in greater or less amounts. No honest democrat will offer the slightest excuse for Tate's rascality, and it becomes the republican party with such a record of stealing and defalcating, to harp so much on the fact that one poor democrat went astray. They are simply trying to fool a few thoughtless democrats into voting for Colson, but the result will show that they have miscalculated upon the credulity even of the ignorant. Judge Sharp, against whose honor and integrity no suspicion has ever rested and whose word is as good as Jay Gould's bond, will be retained in the office to which our noble old governor appointed him, by a majority which will cause the head of the young man from Bell county to swim and leave him in condition almost of not knowing what struck him.

The lavish manner in which Corporal Tanner has been re-rating pension claims which the press has kept so fully before the public, has at last brought the authorities to their senses and a commission has been appointed to investigate the affairs of the office of pension commissioner. A good deal of scandal is connected with it and it is charged that even if Tanner himself has not profited pecuniarily by increasing pensions, a number of his subordinates have. The president is said to regret very much that he entrusted the office to such a man as Tanner, but he could not well refuse the demands of the pension agents and the coffee-coolers, especially since Tanner had been an active party man and had lost both legs in the service of his country. But he has proved a veritable white elephant and would be ordered to walk the plank if the president had the courage to make him.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union, which is the head centre of the prohibition party, have just closed a five-days session at Mountain Park, Md. In their resolutions they "declare it worse than treason to withhold the power of the ballot from the virtuous and intelligent women of the home and lodge it with the vice and ignorance of the saloon for home's destruction." Exactly, and this is what the prohibition party proposes to correct. Women must vote and poor white folks and negroes be denied the right.

Woman suffrage and an educational qualification for voting are both proposed in the prohibition platform and he who tries to make the unwary believe that it is not, is a miserable lying demagogue. It is there in unmistakable terms and both will be adopted should the party of fanaticism and proscription come into power. Uneducated poor white folks and negroes will stand no show whatever in that event. The God-given right of suffrage will be taken from them.

While the noose was around his neck and he was sitting on his horse ready to have him driven from under him and into death, the postmaster at Sweetwater, Wyo., asked his lynchers to grant him only one request and he was willing to go. It was that they should see that a certain man was appointed his successor as postmaster. They promised, the animal was driven from under him and another horse thief had paid the penalty.

In conformity with his determination to dispose of all his interests east of the Mississippi River, Mr. Collis P. Huntington has sold most of his interest in the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad and branches to the Vanderbilts, thereby giving them a controlling interest in that great trunk line. The Vanderbilts are said to be looking toward the south now exclusively for profitable investment.

The Lebanon Standard continues to boom Proctor Knott for the Senate. We think a great deal of the ex-governor, but before we agree to support him we would like to know if in the event that he was elected and Candler's ears needed pulling would he be equal to the occasion? Bro. Phillips will please answer.

The average daily circulation for the last six months of the Times in Louisville and Jefferson county was shown by affidavit to be 11,265 copies and the city printing was awarded to it without contest. The Times is a dandy and no wonder it is the best read paper in the State as well as the metropolis.

GROVER CLEVELAND is out enjoying his favorite sport of fishing, with not even a single reporter to tell whether he spits on his bait or dispenses with that superstition. Holding office makes a wonderful difference in the public's interest in a man, but our Grover is going to come again as sure as shot.

A FOUR-PAGE circular, signed "Prohibitionists," is being scattered broadcast over the county, and as it exemplifies with signal clearness the motive and method of the "I am Holier than Thou" party we hope everyone will read it. It is childish, absurd and malignant to a degree which is really amazing. In so far as it pretends to recite facts it is an unbroken tissue of duncy and transparent falsehoods. Indeed there is nothing true or honest in it, except that its author truly and honestly hates every one who does not bow to the new dispensation promulgated at that Holy See—the McCormack church. Certain discerning critics have thought they discover in this manifesto the broad scholarship and enlightened patriotism of our quondam correspondent, Elder Ballou. If this be true we tender him the thanks of the democratic party for a great service which he has unintentionally done it.

Up to this time Judge Breckinridge has no opposition for the Senate and it hardly appears that there will be any. This should not keep democrats from taking an interest in the election, by any means. The still hunt has been worked successfully by the republicans in numerous instances and nothing ought to be taken for granted. Judge Breckinridge's abilities will give him high rank in the Kentucky Senate, where he will be able to do the State valuable service, and democrats must see to it that we are not caught napping.

OLD CASH CLAY, who offered to orate for the republican party in this campaign, has withdrawn the appointments that he made and will take no hand in the race. The lenders recognizing that the general is a back number and that his voice is better stilled than allowed to utter, gave him such a decided amount of cold shoulder that the old fellow could not help notice it, hence his withdrawal. The general's life has been far from being a model and the sooner its pitiable pages are closed the better for him and all concerned.

The defalcation of Graham, the republican auditor of Warren county, O., continues to grow as he gets farther off in Canada. While they are telling about Dick Tate, will the republican spellbinders please explain how it was that a member of the Goddumighty party could so far forget himself as to steal? The democratic party makes no parade of its piety or its morality, but the record shows that not one democrat to 100 republicans has ever defaulted.

Born parties have resolved that Kentucky needs a new constitution and so far as that question is concerned most everybody is practically united. The present document is a fossiliferous old concern and but for the fact of the cumbersome method necessary to change it, and the fear that we might get a worse one, it would long since have been superseded.

The Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, Hon. M. C. Alford, has issued a ringing address to the democrats of Kentucky to shake off their lethargy and go to work, for which only 10 days remain. Remove General Apathy from command, put Gen. Hustler at the front and Judge Sharp's majority will be 50,000.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—The Vanderbilts paid Mr. Huntington $2,500,000 for the 100,000 shares of the C. & O. stock he sold them.

—A strong effort is being made to have the president pardon Harper, of Fidelity Bank fame, but it is said he will refuse.

—Van Malone, a Georgia negro, made an assault on Mrs. Skinner, near Covington in that State, but he will not do so any more. A mob ended his miserable career as soon as captured.

—A premature explosion of feverishly-named cartridges on the R. N. I. & B., near Nicholasville, killed Jo Banks and injured several others. Capt. Brown was injured about the face, but not seriously.

—The last weekly circular of Henry Clews & Co. estimates that 120,000 Americans are traveling in Europe and that upon the average they will spend $1,000, which will make a grand total of $120,000,000.

—Frank C. Brown, Peter Hasbrough and Henry Richards, surveyors, were drowned while shooting the rapids of Marble Canon, on the Colorado river, their boats upsetting and throwing them into a whirlpool.

—During a Sunday game of base ball in Breckinridge county Ben Bates, the umpire, and Frank Morris, a player, fell out over a decision and a fight ensued, which resulted in the umpire fatally stabbing his antagonist.

—Information has been received at Nashville that the wife of a Presbyterian minister named Heron, who formerly resided at Jonesboro, Tenn., is under sentence of death in Corea for teaching the doctrines of christianity.

—The steamer Lorenzo D. Baker, with a cargo of bananas, six passengers and a crew of 19, en route to Boston from Jamaica, burned to the water's edge in mid ocean. All but two were rescued by the Franklin after a perilous effort.

—At Fu Chow, China, recently, 1,200 people were burned to death. The fire raged 23 hours, destroying $7,000 dwellings. Nearly 170,000 people were compelled to camp out without shelter and they were dying at the rate of 100 a day.

—Col. Roger S. Page, a prominent lawyer, and editor of the Times-Register at Marion, N. C., was shot from behind and killed by an unknown assassin Monday night. There is said to be a woman in the case and a young man of the town is suspected of the murder.

—While bathing in the river near Decatur, Ill., Thomas Landers was carried over a dam and lit upon a sharp snag, which struck him in the back, near the base of the spinal column, passing entirely through the body and coming out in the lower part of the abdomen.

—Wm. Baugh and Green Flynn, at Fairbush, Pulaski, were wrestling, when Baugh's brother struck Flynn on the head with a hand spike, crushing the skull. Drs. Warren and Perkins removed the skull and found that death resulted from concussion of the brain.

—Thomas A. Edison is supposed to know something about electricity. He testified before the referee in the Kemmler case that there is no difficulty whatever in killing a man instantly and painlessly with an alternating electric current. This evidence was drawn out in the effort to prove that the New York law requiring executions by electricity is cruel and inhuman.

—John A. Rose, a prominent farmer of Powell county, was shot from ambush by unknown assassins, who made their escape. About a year ago Rose killed his son-in-law, Dock Hall, for which he was soon to be tried. Much excitement exists over the killing, and it is feared that it will lead to a revival of the bloody feuds in several of the mountain counties.

DISMISSED.—Frank Reppert, who was an examiner in the pension bureau at $2,000 a year, has been dismissed. Cause—too good a democrat.

LOTS.—Mrs. Catherine Bailey has for sale some lots in the Miller Extension, House and lot now occupied by W. H. Miller; also No. 1 horse and buggy.

A VERY pleasant lawn party was given last night by Miss Belle Hutchinson and Mrs. C. J. Harris at Mrs. Harris' home at Rowland. A number of the young people were present.

WITH his three assistants absent, Dr. Owsley has been running the Lincoln National single and alone this week and the stockholders finding that he can do all the work himself, will probably increase his salary and let him continue to do so.

THE boys showed their good feeling for Prof. Hubbard Monday night by giving him a grand serenade. The instruments used were not of the harmonious order, but what they lacked in melody was made up in the monstrous method of making themselves musical.

THERE is yet no publicly announced republican candidate for the legislature and Mr. Gentry says if there is to be, he is not aware of it certainly he is not a candidate. He tells that he is advising his colored friends to "hands off" in the legislative race and let the democrats and prohibitionists fight it out, while urging them to go up and vote for Colson for treasurer.

MANY of their friends are not aware of the fact, but it is a fact all the same, that John S. Hughes, J. W. Alcorn and E. T. Rochester have done time in the penitentiary. Capt. R. D. and H. F. Logan, of Boyle, are also in the same boat and all of them are going to the reunion of the survivors of Gen. John H. Morgan's command who, during the late war, were confined in the penitentiaries of Ohio and Pennsylvania.

SAM RUT, a negro living on Mr. J. H. Miller's farm, went down in Mr. Miller's well for a bucket that had fallen in. After reaching in the water a few seconds he became cramped and screamed for help. Mr. Miller, who was near by, heard the cry and obtained a rope and being an adept in loosening he managed to throw it over the negro's head and pulled him out before any damage was done him. It was a close call and Mr. Miller says his complexion, usually as black as the ace of spades, was as sallow as a dirt-eater and he was scared nearly out of his senses.

BY THE WISE.—Judge Stephen G. Sharp, democratic candidate for State treasurer, was in the county a couple of days this week getting acquainted with our people and making votes. He spent a night with that old rock-ribbed democrat, Mr. Samuel Reid, and Wednesday went with a party composed of Misses Helen and Jennie Reid and others to Crab Orchard. Besides being popular with the voters, the judge is decidedly a lady's man and can usually be found in their company, when not otherwise engaged. He is a capital man and old Lincoln is going to do him proud.

A YOUNG lady living some four miles in the country started to town Tuesday morning and the weather being oppressively hot, dressed her pretty figure in a loosely fitting Mother Hubbard, remembering the base ball, she placed in her buggy a suitable dress to attend to, but was greatly surprised on her arrival here to find that the dress had fallen out. A boy was sent to fetch the lost garment, but nothing could be seen or heard of it. Determined not to be outdone, the young lady purchased a piece of cloth similar to that of the dress lost, immediately commenced cutting and sewing. By 3 o'clock she had completed her dress and was among the first there. Is there another town in the State that affords such a girl?

BRO. BARNES.—Gen. Landman writes us from Lancaster that he thinks the Louisville Post is mistaken in saying that the record of Brother Barnes service in the Mexican war is that "he blew the life with great vigor." Brother Barnes belonged to Capt. Stone's company from Madison county that constituted part of the 1st Kentucky cavalry commanded by Col. Humphrey Marshall. In the army the cavalry use bugles and trumpets exclusively, consequently there were no drums nor fife in the regiment to which Bro. Barnes belonged. All of Bro. Barnes' comrades knew he was a "dandy," but that he ever cheered the soldiers with the music of a fife before a battle with the Mexicans is only a myth. The 1st Kentucky cavalry was in one battle only—Buena Vista, and Capt. Stone's company did not reach the battle field, although anxious to do so, until the morning after the fight. It may be that Bro. Barnes performed on a fife as a source of amusement, but fife is unknown in the cavalry service.

COOLERS and ice-cream freezers at Thos. Metcalf's.

EVERY married ladies are calling for changes in the ratio of our business manager. Mrs. Tom Metcalf sent us 30 clovers yesterday, each of which had from four to six leaves on it. Girls, we are afraid she's got him. You can't heat that.

NOR FOR IT.—Mr. E. R. Chenault tells us that the question of a resubmission of the prohibition question in Kansas is the absorbing one in that State now. He has had a good chance to observe the workings of the law and very frankly says he is far from being pleased with it, so much so that he will vote against it if it comes to that point.

THE republican bosses, knowing that they cannot elect a candidate for the legislature, are striving to carry favor with the prohibitionists by trying to make the colored voters refrain from voting in the contest, but it won't work. A large number have already, unconditionally, and mostly unsolicited, promised to support Mr. Warren and they cannot be controlled by the bosses in that matter at least.

THE is a great deal of sickness in town, dux, malarial and typhoid fevers predominating. Warren Hocker continues very ill with the latter disease and his sister, Miss Jennie, has also been taken down with it. Harry Geer also has it and it at the point of death, while Mrs. W. F. Ramsey, a son of John W. Wallace and several others are threatened. Mrs. T. R. Walton continues very ill and Mrs. A. A. McKinney has had a relapse.

COL. W. O. BRADLEY missed the train here Tuesday and consequently his appointment to speak at Louisville that night. The appointment was fixed for the next night, however, and his second attempt to reach the city was rewarded with better success. He was suffering with vertigo and not in condition to do himself justice, but says his party would have done no harm and he proposed to give them the best in his shop if he fell in his tracks.

THE wife of a leading prohibitionist was here Wednesday with her ears nearly torn out by the roots and carrying bruises all over her body, which she said were inflicted by the man who had promised to love, cherish and protect her. The cause of all the cruelty and inhumanity was that she had failed to put some cucumbers in brine that he had gathered for pickle. A suit for divorce and alimony will likely result, but in hopes that there may be a reconciliation we withhold names for the present.

A SHAKEN did up a good many Stanford people this week. His plan was to go to a housekeeper and by extravagant representations of his Boston Steamed Corn, which he would deliver hot and ready for eating, induce her to buy one or more quarts at 15 cents a quart. A good many agreed to purchase and the delivery took place next day, when it turned out that his steamed corn was nothing more nor less than badly cooked hominy and in an old coal oil barrel at that. Several refused to pay after seeing it, but he took in the majority, who now feel like it is a poor business to put confidence in man, especially strange men, with something to sell. Our merchants have nearly everything an ordinary mortal ought to want, and you need run no risks whatever of being played for a sucker.

MURDERED.—Mr. Evan S. Warren, who was a brother of Hon. R. C. Warren, was shot by a negro named Beatty Wickliffe at the Danville depot, Monday afternoon and died that night at 10:30. He and the negro had had a difficulty in the morning when the latter remarked that he would see him again. He was as good as his word as the following dying declaration of Mr. Warren shows:

A half hour before his death he made substantially the following statement: "I believe that I am going to die. The circumstances attending the shooting are as follows: I went to the depot in the omnibus, got out and went into the ladies' waiting room. As I came out Beatty Wickliffe came out of the men's waiting room and followed me to the south end of the platform, glaring at me, and with his right hand in his pocket. As he came up to me he began drawing his pistol. I fled at him and he ran. Just as I fled, Bob Mayho and Fleni Murphy, both colored, seized me, one by each arm and wrist, and while they were still holding me Wickliffe, who had run away out of sight, came back, and coming close to me shot me several times."

The murder has caused much excitement in Danville and there is a question as to whether the negroes were holding Mr. Warren as peace-makers or accomplices. They had not been arrested at last accounts, the authorities preferring to await the result of the examining trial. Mr. Warren was a warm-hearted, whole-souled man and leaves many friends, who sincerely regret his untimely taking off. He was conscious nearly up to the last and in response to his brother Dick's question, said he would like to talk with Rev. Dr. Green. He was sent for and after praying with and for him, had a very satisfactory talk on spiritual matters. The funeral occurred Wednesday at Danville, after a service by Dr. Green, and was largely attended. The family, and especially Mr. R. C. Warren, whose engagements must be irksome to him under the circumstances, have the hearty sympathy of everybody.

JUDGE DURHAM is hooping up the democrats in Wayne and the news comes from there that the old veteran, like Sheppard, will certainly warm a seat in the next legislature. Rally for the old democrat!

REMEMBER that you can go to the Kirkville Fair to-day and to-morrow on the regular train from Rowland, at 7 A. M., and that it will be held in the afternoon for your return at Paint Lick, where omnibuses will convey passengers to and from the grounds.

DEPOSITIONS are being taken here by J. R. Mount and the L. & N. railroad in the suits he has brought in the Oldham Circuit Court for $25,000 damages for the injury of his boy and $15,000 for injury to his wife in the accident at Bardston Junction last Christmas. Joseph Clure represents Mr. Mount and D. H. French the railroad and the depositions are being taken down by stenographer J. R. Holmes. Mrs. Mount is far from recovered from the accident, but the boy appears to be improving.

A REPUBLICAN paper apologizing for Colson not being in the army says, "But he sheltered and fed soldiers of the Union and guided them to places of safety in time of danger." Whereat the Hopkinsville Kentuckian sarcastically remarks: "As Colson claims to have been born in 1862, he must have 'fed' soldiers by sharing his milk bottle with them and 'guided' them by the strength of his lungs."
